Friday 24th June 2016

On Friday, 17th June, the EYFS children celebrated the end of their Barnardo's Charity Big Toddle Jungle Animal-themed project with a sing-song followed by a spectacular parade around the playground and some well deserved jelly and ice cream.

Throughout the project the children have been given an indication of the world's biodiversity by learning about the incredible wild animals who share our world, the food they eat, their habitats and the purpose of a Zoo. Among the many fun games and activities the children undertook were the making of masks, binoculars and maps; they became Safari explorers, pretended to be jungle animals and listened to jungle stories. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed a great experience.

Thank you to the parents and families of the children for providing an array of wonderful animal costumes and accessories and for so generously supporting the Barnardo's Charity. You raised a magnificent £584. Under the terms and conditions of Barnardo's Charity, 25% (£146), will be retained by school for use in the EYFS outdoor area and £438 will be sent to Barnardo's.

WFA Football Tournament

On Tuesday the Form 1, Form 2 and Reception classes fielded a squad for the Wilmslow Football Academy tournament. Ten girls and boys from the three classes played in the tournament. The children played admirably with all players enjoying plenty of competitive football.

As the tournament progressed, WPS grew in confidence and performances improved.

Well done to all who took part!

School Survey

We would like to thank all those parents who have already completed the online questionnaire which is being run for us by RSAcademics. This is a reminder for those who have not yet been able to respond.

Please do take this opportunity to complete a survey about all aspects of life at school, and so ensure your views help shape the School's future plans and activities. Wilmslow Preparatory School Parent Survey
