A Week of Fantastic Events

We have had a fabulous, action-packed week of events at Wilmslow Prep to mark the last week of Spring Term. On Tuesday we welcomed back Mrs Neilson, who very kindly adjudicated our House Music Festival. As always, the standard of entries was incredibly high. At last count, over 70% of pupils were taking individual music lessons with our dedicated team of peripatetic staff. A huge thank you to Mrs Wood and Mrs Smith, who have worked tirelessly to put this event together.

On Wednesday afternoon Early Years celebrated Easter with their Easter Bonnet Parade. As usual, the children came to School with some very creative bonnets. In the afternoon parents and grandparents were treated to a range of Easter-themed songs as well as hot cross buns and drinks. Well done to Mrs Milne and the Early Years Team and a special thank you to Mrs Broome for transforming our hall with daffodils and Easter decorations. Thanks also to Mrs Savage for accompanying the children on the piano and to Ms Byrne & Mrs Cooke for catering.

This morning, visitors to School were greeted with the delicious aroma of a cooked breakfast, courtesy of the Parents' Committee. The Big Breakfast is always a very popular event, giving parents a rare opportunity to eat at School with their children. There was also a silent auction this week, which ended during the breakfast and offered some fantastic prizes. Thank you to all the parents who came along this morning and a special thank you to the Parents Committee for their hard work organising this event.
