Meet Wilmslow Prep School's New Head and Deputy Head Girls

With the new school term well under way, Wilmslow Prep School was recently delighted to announce the appointment of new Head Girl, Emily and new Deputy Head Girl, Heidi.

The two Form 6 girls, chosen by the teachers at the School, will have various official roles to carry out during the year. The roles include speaking at special events, such as the Harvest Festival, the Christmas Carol Concert and the end of the year assembly. The girls will also write and present a review of the week at Friday assemblies as well as share information about the week ahead. And most importantly, the Head and Deputy girls will act as positive role models for the rest of the pupils, setting a good example regarding behaviour, uniform and work ethic.

Emily and Heidi took some time out to share some helpful advice for their fellow pupils. Emily says, "Make sure you always be yourself. Do what you love to do and enjoy it!" Heidi's advice is, "Make sure to always listen carefully and make the most of every opportunity!"

Be A Superhero for Children in Need Friday 14th November 2014

This will be a charity home clothes day with a Superhero theme. £1 donation to the charity and a prize for the best costume.

The Superhero Shorts Competition will also be judged, with many prizes to be won!

Please bring your decorated shorts into School on Thursday 13th November.

F1 Self Portraits

In F1, with Mrs Milne, the children have been drawing self-portraits in Art. They started with a pencil drawing and progressed onto painting. The children mixed all the colours themselves and made their own patterned frames. Their effort and concentration was fantastic and we are very proud of the end results.
