

Weekly Bulletin Friday 1st May 2020

During another week of 'lockdown learning' it has been fabulous to see all your photographs of the children enjoying their home schooling. We have had so many pictures it has not been possible to fit them all in below so please do not worry if yours is not here as more will be included on next week's newsletter. Please keep them coming. We have loved receiving them and look forward to many more.

Many Happy Returns to all the children who have celebrated their birthday recently or will do so before the end of April. We hope you all had a lovely time.

As we mentioned all April's birthdays in our last newsletter before the holiday we will save this space for our next celebrants.

Congratulations to this week's

Stars of the Week!

Even though we are all learning remotely at the moment, our staff would still like to celebrate their Stars of the Week.

Rec: Rosa for doing lots of lovely writing.

F1: Molly for always contributing with such enthusiasm and a smile on her face and submitting fantastic work.

F2: Holly for being ever so smiley during every Zoom session, for asking questions and for some lovely descriptive and beautifully illustrated written work!

F3: Holly for her hard work and enthusiasm in our lessons, and her kindness and her thinking about other people in our community.

F4: Ellie for showing great dedication to her online learning and completing lots of work to a high standard.

F5: Raffi for hard work this week at home and in tutorials, and handing all his assignments in.

F6: Iman for working really hard all week and returning her work promptly.

~~~~~ Form 4 Joke of the Week ~~~~~

Why couldn't the pony sing himself a lullaby?
Because he was a little hoarse!
